GEORGE FLOYD
#JUSTICEFORFLOYD

(Religion Unplugged) — Roaming through the Cuney Homes Projects in Houston, Texas, a predominantly African American neighborhood, Pastor Patrick “PT” Ngwolo of the church Resurrection Houston went looking for disciples. Flyers in hand, he walked the streets promoting a coming concert featuring the Christian rap artists Reconcile and Corey Paul.

At the show, one man loomed tall over the crowd. The pastors flocked to him. “It was Big Floyd,” Ngwolo said. “He stands out in the crowd.” He’s remembered by his partners in ministry as “OG,” meaning original or original gangster, and “a man of peace.”

Pastor Ngwolo and Floyd’s relationship that budded at that neighborhood concert quickly grew into a partnership focused on relational ministry and community building. Floyd was well-connected and well-respected in the area, and he eagerly threw his reputation and his labor into the initiative.

The local basketball court became hallowed ground, the premises for “Church in the Bricks.” Floyd became a central figure of the Christian outreach program, Ngwolo said. “Everything from speakers to chairs, to tables, everything had to be loaded from one location to the next,” said Corey Paul, one of Floyd’s partners in ministry. Floyd volunteered to set up and tear down for ministry events on the court, sometimes lugging 30 chairs at a time, his friends said.

Reconcile recalled Floyd helping him lug a large baptismal pool filled with water onto the court. “It was basically a horse trough,” Ngwolo said. At one of these neighborhood outreaches, in the summer of 2015, Floyd’s friend Nijalon Dunn was baptized.

“That experience, it was monumental,” Dunn said. “We talk about Big Floyd being OG, a person of peace, a gatekeeper. He empowered us. He was someone from the community who empowered brothers and sisters from outside to usher the gospel in. To be able to be baptized in a place like Cuney Homes, it was a sign of hope.”

I'll Fly Away

Verse 1

Some glad morning when this life is o'er I'll fly away
To a home on God's celestial shore I'll fly away

Chorus

I'll fly away O glory I'll fly away
When I die hallelujah by and by I'll fly away

Verse 2

When the shadows of this life have grown I'll fly away
Like a bird from prison bars has flown I'll fly away

Verse 3

Just a few more happy days and then I'll fly away
To a land where joys shall never end I'll fly away

Build My Life

Verse 1

Worthy of ev'ry song we could ever sing
Worthy of all the praise we could ever bring
Worthy of ev'ry breath we could ever breathe
We live for You

Verse 2

Jesus the name above ev'ry other name
Jesus the only one who could ever save
Worthy of ev'ry breath we could ever breathe
We live for You / We live for You

Chorus

Holy there is no one like You / There is none beside You
Open up my eyes in wonder and show me who You are
And fill me with Your heart
And lead me in Your love to those around me

Bridge

I will build my life upon Your love
It is a firm foundation
I will put my trust in You alone
And I will not be shaken

Angel Band

(As sung by The Stanley Brothers)

Verse 1 My latest sun is sinking fast
My race is nearly run
My strongest trials now are past
My triumph has begun

Chorus

Oh come angel band, Come and around me stand
Oh, bear me away on your snow white wings
To my immortal home
Oh, bear me away on your snow white wings
To my immortal home

Verse 2 Oh bear my longing heart to him
Who bled and died for me
Whose blood now cleanses from all sins
And brings me victory

Love Is Not a Fight

Warren Barfield

Verse 1

Love is not a place / to come and go as we please
It's a house we enter in / and then commit to never leave
So lock the door behind you / Throw away the key
We'll work it out together / Let it bring us to our knees

Chorus

Love is a shelter / in a raging storm
Love is peace / in the middle of a war
If we try to leave / may God send angels to guard the door
No, love is not a fight / but it's something worth fighting for

Verse 2

To some, love is a word / that they can fall into
But when they're falling out / keeping that word is hard to do

Repeat Chorus.

Verse 3

Love will come to save us / if we'll only call
He will ask nothing from us / but demand we give our all

Repeat Chorus.

I would fight for you, would you fight for me?
It's worth fighting for.
